Students Out & About

The Year 13 Media Studies class visited New Zealand Media and Entertainment (NZME) as part of their study of the commercial radio industry in New Zealand.

Year 13 history students were at the National Library and the War Memorial Museum in an endeavour to explore the topic of the Pearl Harbour attack.

Twenty Kaipara students had a memorable time at the Auckland Writers' Festival. They met authors Anthony Horowitz and Laurie Halse Anderson as well as New Zealand poet, Grace Taylor.

RockQuest

Fifteen bands and sixteen duets or solo acts are preparing for the first stage of RockQuest. The bands kick off on Sunday 24 May at Green Bay High School from 12–3 pm. Kaipara bands will be every second performance!

The pre-competition gig for the bands, "Into the Fire" is ten years old!

7 pm, Thursday, 21 May

Blood Fever by Charlie Higson

Before the name became a legend, before the boy became a man, meet Bond, James Bond. Have you ever found yourself stuck in a foreign country, captured by evil men, with betrayals everywhere? James has. A harmless trip to his relative's house soon leads James to danger. A very real danger.
