Music Month at Kaipara

May is New Zealand Music month and the Kaipara musicians have embraced it fully.

Band Factory, each Wednesday night, is the training ground where bands rehearse for a panel of experienced musicians who critique performances and coach skills. This Wednesday the panel contained Joe Walsh and Nick Douch of Ekko Park. Thanks for the great advice, guys!

Kaipara musicians have been invited to perform at the tribute concert for Rolling Stones music. On Thursday Clap, Clap, Riot was at school rehearsing and playing with our bands who will join them for two Stones numbers.

Last night was the tenth 'Into the Fire' gig, the concert that is held three days before the RockQuest competition. It featured the fifteen bands that will compete at Green Bay High school on Sunday. The standard set by the younger bands in the first half of the gig was high. The senior bands met the challenge and lifted it to an outstanding level in the second half. The Hall was full, the VIP tables popular and our special guests, Wayne McIntyre, Managing Director of the Rockshop and Trieste Douglas, Talent Manager for Universal Music, were pretty impressed. Now, all we have to do is clean out the RockQuest competition. What a month!

Pink Shirt Day

At Kaipara there were a few pink shirts but lots of pink on display in small ways that mark our commitment to work together to reduce bullying.

Try reading this Fire and Flood by Victoria Scott

Would you do anything to help your family? I know Tella would. Her brother is dying. He has cancer, and Tella is helpless to save him. Or she thought was...When an invitation arrives for Tella to compete in the Brimstone Bleed, a deadly competition that will lead her through treacherous jungle and scorching desert, she doesn't think twice.

The prize is a cure to any illness. But Tella will be facing more than just the elements...This book by Victoria Scott is an amazing read that leaves you eager to read the sequel, Salt and Stone. Reviewed by Sammy Kay, 9YL
