College Ball

Nearly two hundred College students from Year 11, 12 and 13 enjoyed a great Ball last Friday. The Ball was capably organised by the Student Leader team at Markovina in Kumeu. The music filled the dance floor all night, the food was plentiful and the photographer was kept busy from start to finish.

The Ball royal family was:

King:	Billy Bowman
Queen:	Savannah Cox
Prince:	Jarel Hemehema
Princess:	Tara Mansell-Sawyers
Duke:	JJ Soole
Duchess:	Keziah Waite
Cutest Couple:	Hannah Hawker and Sam Logan
Best Dressed:	Billy Bowman

Community Planting Day

Rautawhiri Park offers a great opportunity to increase the native biodiversity of the Helensville Area. We need your help to plant a future forest.

Bring Gumboots or strong shoes.
BBQ after the planting.

Rautawhiri Reserve

10.00am – 12.30pm Sunday, 31 August.

Success for our Songwriters

Three Kaipara College students are in the top forty songwriters in this year's Play it Strange song writing competition. Our winners are:

Pearl Hindley	"Silver and Fire"
Imogen Roberts	"Second Hand Smoke"
Keziah Waite	"Grandpa's Song"

The students will spend a day recording their songs in Neil Finn's Roundhead Studio for release on the Play it Strange CD.

This achievement keeps the run of top achievement in song writing going. We have been on every Play it Strange finals CD since 2006. We have won the best school title three times.

Try reading this

Peter Jackson:

From Prince of Splatter to Lord of the Rings

Have you ever idolized a New Zealand born movie director before? Then this is the book for you.

This book is about Peter Jackson and how he made movies like The Hobbit and Lord of the Rings. As you read the book, it will also tell you about the other movies like the blood and gore Zombie flick Braindead, Heavenly Creatures a film which stars Kate Winslet, King Kong, which is about a big gorilla, and The Adventures of Tin Tin which Peter Jackson produced.

I encourage you to read this book and find out about the life of a New Zealand born movie director.
