ANZAC Day

The College student leaders played a leading role in the Anzac day commemorations in Helensville this year. The team was asked by the RSA to be the parade flag bearers; an honour that they were proud to discharge. They carried the forces' flags, the merchant navy flag and the national flags of New Zealand and Australia. Head Girl, Judith Glasson, found the experience very moving especially wearing her grandfather's medals. The meaning of the day struck home when a wreath was laid by a school mate's family for a serviceman killed in Afghanistan.

The student contribution was praised by a caller to Newstalk ZB who was impressed with the dignity that they brought to the commemoration service. The RSA was impressed enough to ask the College to repeat the duty for next year's centennial Anzac Day parade.

It's NZ Music Month

It is New Zealand Music Month and the College has hit the ground running:

Who Loves Who

WLW is a competition which challenges students to rearrange NZ music into a different genre. Seventeen groups from around the country had songs selected for the CD. Seven of the groups are from Kaipara. Congratulations to Candy Yoo, Imogen Roberts, Erica Cheriton, Keziah Waite, Bianca Bailey, Devon Conway, Savannah Cox, Emma Petersen, Jess David, Max Ashworth, Beth Stewart and Aimee Way. Congratulations!

Pearl Hindley

Pearl, classical violinist and a member of the College band Winnie and the Fros, has been selected to be part of the New Zealand Youth Orchestra. This will involve workshops in Wellington and performances in both Wellington and Auckland. Congratulations!

TV 3 in the School

TV3's breakfast programme spent two hours at the College yesterday filming the musicians and interviewing students and staff. The film will be a part of a breakfast television programme, Firstline, one day next week.

New Website

The College website has been redesigned and is on the web at the same address as before; www.kaiparacollege.school.nz.

The website includes a parent portal that will give parents information about their children. The portal includes a student's timetable, academic results and fees payments. It also provides a school calendar and the contact details we hold for the student.

The parent portal is only accessible with a login and password which is unique to each student.

Parents can obtain these by contacting Tania Clarke at the school; (09) 420 8640 or tclarke@kaiparacollege.school.nz

You will see the website expand and grow through the term as we add material to the site. We are interested in any feedback about the site, especially suggestions of material you would like to see on it.
